

FLY HIGH

FOR YANG LAN

MUSIC & LYRICS BY JANET NOH

VERSE

Don't need a script to know your truth
The words are there inside of you
Have you been taught to trust your heart?
Every journey is a chance for you to start

Some will second guess your strength
Some will criticize at length
Your chance to brave the wondrous unknown
Some will try to block your way
Some will silence what you say
And you'll discover just how far you can go

CHORUS

If you let yourself run
You can learn to fly
Aim for the sun
And you'll land in the sky
You can dream up a place
You can get there with a grace
If you fly high
Fly high, fly high

Don't be afraid to sing out loud
You'll find the courage to stand tall and stand proud
You have the power in your mind
If you just take a hold and leave your doubts behind

Some will second guess your strength
Some will try to shake your faith
But now you know that you can make it on your own
Some will try to block your way
Some will question what you say
And now you'll show them just how far you can go

If you let yourself run
You can learn to fly
Aim for the sun
And you'll land in the sky
You can dream up a place
You can get there with a grace
If you fly high
Fly high, fly high

BRIDGE

Be the change you wish to see
You've got to give more to receive
The gift's inside of you
If you believe

If you let yourself run
You can learn to fly
Aim for the sun
And you'll land in the sky

If you let yourself run
You can learn to fly
Aim for the sun
And you'll land in the sky
You can dream up a place
You can get there with a grace
If you fly high
Fly high, fly high
Fly high
